

Disclaimers

- Entries and the persons depicted therein are restricted to works for which the entrant holds the copyright or for the use of which the entrant has received the prior permission of the right holder.
- The entrant is responsible for taking all steps necessary to protect the rights of persons depicted, including but not limited to obtaining their permission.
- Entrants are responsible for the resolution of any legal issues arising from their works and agree to pay any costs thereby incurred.
- The organizer reserves the right to disallow entries that depict brand logos or other intellectual property, whether on signs or posters or in other forms, or that in its judgment are harmful to the public order, violate standards of decency or are contrary to the goals of the contest.
- Entrants must hold all applicable rights to the final image, including any retouching or other image processing.
- Entrants will not be notified of receipt of their entries. Please note that the organizer will not respond to inquiries concerning their receipt.
- Entries are only accepted through the Internet.
- No fee will be incurred to enter the CPC free "All Entrants" contest.
- Entering the contest constitutes agreement to the terms and conditions stated in the contest Entry Guidelines.
- The organizer reserves the right of final judgment concerning items not expressly stated in these Entry Guidelines. Entrants who do not consent to the organizer's decisions may withdraw from the contest. Any costs associated with withdrawal from the contest are to be borne by the entrant.
- Once submitted, entries will not be returned to entrants under any circumstances, even if they are later withdrawn.
- Please note that the organizer may elect to suspend or postpone receipt of any or all entries if in its judgment, the contest cannot be run smoothly, securely or without affecting the fairness of the judging due to circumstances beyond its control, including but not limited to network failure, computer viruses or unauthorized access to its servers.
- Please note that when a winning work is used for exhibitions and the like stated below, due to circumstances concerning printing or otherwise, the tone or expressed meaning may not be strictly reproduced according to the winner's intent.
- Please note that no response shall be given to any inquiries or complaints regarding the judges' decisions.

Responsibility

- Although entries are handled with the greatest possible care, the organizer does not accept responsibility for accidents, damage or loss during upload.
- The organizer does not accept responsibility for damages arising from or related to circumstances beyond its control, including but not limited to network failure, computer viruses or unauthorized access to its servers.
- Save where they are due to the organizer's malice or gross negligence, the organizer does not accept liability for damages or other harm suffered by entrants because of their participation in the contest.
- Entrants are required to obtain the prior permission and consent of the persons who are portrayed in their works or who hold the copyright or other intellectual property rights to the works or the items portrayed therein.
- Entrants agree to fully indemnify the organizer and accept all responsibility for any third-party complaints or objections concerning copyright or other intellectual property rights infringement or damages arising from the works submitted.
- The foregoing limitations also apply to the responsibilities borne by the organizer and, the judges and third parties participating in the contest in cooperation with the organizer.

Entrants' Rights

Although entrants retain the copyright and other equivalent rights to their entries, the organizer retains the rights listed below in the "Organizer's Rights" with respect to the entries.

Organizer's Rights

- The organizer reserves the right to publish entries to its public social networking service accounts throughout the submission period to publicize the contest. Such publication does not guarantee an award of any kind.
- The organizer reserves the right to publish all entries onto websites and social networking service accounts related to the contest after judging for a period of at least 36 months. Some entries may be cropped for publication.

- With the objective of publicizing the contest and enriching the general image-making culture, the organizer reserves in perpetuity the non-exclusive right to publish, reproduce, make public, publicly transmit, display, print, distribute and screen winning entries with the credit titles on websites and public social networking service accounts, in photo exhibitions, camera-related events, exhibitions and in the facilities managed or organized by the subsidiaries or affiliates of Caribbean Photo Contest and local agents authorized by the organizer (collectively the "organizer, etc." including the organizer) without further compensation to or the additional prior consent of the winners.
- The organizer, etc. will display the names of the winners and the titles of the winning entries on contest-related websites and public social networking service accounts, at exhibitions, and in other locations where the works are shown. Entrants are requested to familiarize themselves with the "Personal Information" below.
- With the objective of accomplishing the goals outlined in the foregoing clause, the organizer, etc. may: (a) display the winning entries in whole or in part on websites or public social networking service accounts under its administration, with the addition of graphical effects, sound effects or music; and (b) employ the winning entries in whole or in part in the creation of posters, tickets and pamphlets promoting photo exhibitions and other events. The winners agree not to exercise moral rights to works so used.
- For the objective other than those stated above, upon agreement with the creator or winner, the organizer reserves in perpetuity the non-exclusive right to publish, reproduce, make public, publicly transmit, display, print, distribute and screen entries or winning entries with labels indicating them as entries or winning entries of the contest and the credit titles, without further compensation.
- Entries that in the judgment of the organizer do not conform to Entry Guidelines will be disqualified. Entrants will not be notified in this event.
- If a winner is found to be disqualified for whatever reason after a prize is awarded, the award may be revoked and the entrant requested to return the prize.
- These Entry Guidelines shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey, USA.
- Any disputes between entrants and the organizer are subject to and shall be executed under New Jersey State Law having exclusive jurisdiction.

Personal Information

When submitting works to the contest, the entrant must include an entry form that provides accurate personal information to the organizer. The decision whether to provide this information lies with the entrant. Entries that do not contain the required information will not be accepted.

Use of Personal Information

Personal information provided by entrants may be used as required to:

- notify winners of the results;
- provide entrants with information about the contest;
- correspond with entrants about their submissions;
- announce the winning entries;
- generate general contest statistics;
- send out questionnaires about the contest; and
- deliver prizes.

Moreover, questionnaire contents that are voluntary filled in will be used as a reference when the finished products are released by our company.

Data Storage

Note that regardless of the entrant's country of residence, data provided in a submission (image data of works and personal information) may be stored in Japan or another country at the discretion of the organizer.

On websites, in publications or otherwise pertaining to the contest, the names of the winners will appear with the winning entries, and entrants' names may also be used to establish their identity if they request updates to their addresses or other personal information. Any notifications and inquiries for these purposes will come from the Caribbean Photo Contest.

Disclosure of Personal Information to Third Parties

The organizer may disclose to judges, and to third parties overseeing the contest, such personal information as may be required for contest management.

In providing personal information for this purpose, the organizer assumes responsibility for the appropriate oversight of personal information through non-disclosure agreements and other measures.

Inquiries Concerning Personal Information

Caribbean Photo Contest

info@caribbeanphotocontests.com

Updating Personal Information

To update the personal information provided with your entry, to confirm the entry form instructions, or to resolve other related matters, contact the Inquiries Desk at the email address listed above.

Management of Personal Information

The organizer endeavors to ensure the security of all personal information transmitted via the Internet, using the Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) protocol or equivalent methods to prevent unauthorized access by third parties.

Erasure of Personal Information

Except for personal information pertaining to winners and entrants whose submissions have been used for purposes other than promoting the contest ("winners and some others"), the organizer shall take the steps needed to dispose of or erase all personal information submitted (entry forms, submitted files, and all other digitized personal information pertaining to the contest) on December 31 of each year of the respective category contest (the "date of erasure"). Please note that with the exceptions of winners and some others, no corrections or references can be made to entrants' personal information on and after the date of erasure.